Application for 50% Tuition Grant For Military and First Responder from the International College for Christian Studies

Instructional Information Sheet

Grants from the International College for Christian Studies (ICCS) are only available for those seeking academic certificates or degrees. If you intend to take only continuing education or training courses, grants are not available.

Type or legibly print your answers in black ink. If your form is illegible, it will not be accepted.

Student Grant for Military and First Responder Program Information

The Student Grant for Military and First Responder Program is available for all military personnel (Active, Reserve, Guard, or veteran) and active first responders (law enforcement, medical, and fire) from any nation or state (including authorized State Defense Forces) and provides recipients a grant for 50% of tuition. Students must still pay the other 50% of tuition and all other associated expenses (application fees, technology fees, textbooks, etc.). Although students may apply for a grant at the same time as application, students must meet full admissions requirements in order to receive a grant. Grants will not be awarded to students on probation, as they have not yet been fully accepted to the College. Additionally, grant applicants must be a member in good standing of a Christian church. If applicants meet all of the grant requirements, military and first responder grants are guaranteed.

Effects of Nondisclosure and Penalties for Inaccurate or False Statements

This application form requests both mandatory and optional information. If you omit answering an item, however, it may delay the processing of your application and you may or may not receive approval for the grant in time for the term for which you are applying. Consequently, it is in your best interest to answer all of the questions. Deliberately and materially making false, fraudulent, or misleading statements on this form will be grounds for not awarding a grant. In addition, these violations will become part of your permanent record with the International College for Christian Studies, and will be considered in case of future application. Deliberate false, fraudulent, or misleading statements are also grounds for expulsion from ICCS at any time in the future.

You are applying to a highly-regarded institution, and your trustworthiness and suitability is vital to your eligibility. Consequently, your prospects for a grant will be better if you answer all of the questions completely and honestly.

Principal Purpose and Privacy Notice

The principal purpose of this form is to collect information to determine the suitability for persons applying for an ICCS grant to any of the academic programs offered by ICCS. The information provided will not be disclosed to any outside parties, without the express consent of the applicant, other than requests made in accordance with applicable laws and court-mandated release of specific information.

Nondiscrimination Policy

The International College for Christian Studies admits students and provides employment to individuals of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, creed, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, political affiliation, physical disability, or veteran status. It does not discriminate in any of these categories in administration of its employment policies, educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship, loan or grant programs, and athletic or other school-administered programs, and provides all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities to all students and employees generally accorded or made available to any students or employees at the school.
